

NINETEEN SIXTY

Foreword

As we leaf through the pages of this year's annual, we find the importance of school in our social life as well as our educational life. Through student activities; sports, music, and scholastic functions we are given the opportunity to be an individual, form opinions, make a place for ourself, and earn the respect of those with whom we work. In this way we brighten our horizons and broaden our outlook on life.

In Memoriam

We, the students, of Antwerp High School dedicate this 1960 edition of the Archer to the fond memory of one of our most beloved teachers, Mr. A. O. Bell.

Mr. Bell, during his thirty-three years of teaching at Antwerp, had made friends with all students who came under his influence, and had succeeded in making better men and women of all those who had looked to him for guidance academically and personally. No favor or person was too small or unimportant to merit his help. His willingness to serve always to the best of his ability, without expectation of reward and often without even a thank you, was a virtue admired but not emulated by most.

He was capable without conceit; he was generous and asked nothing in return; he was efficient and not proud; he was responsible, industrious and upright. Few men could live in a community and earn the love and respect that he has won from all who knew him. We pause to salute Mr. Bell, our most respected and most valued citizen and teacher.

Prof Says --

Many people believe that receiving a diploma is the completion of one's education. There is nothing farther from the truth than this, as education is a continuous process from the cradle to the grave.

One of the objectives of our school is to develop independent thought. Training for thinking is more important than training for any profession or calling. The hardest thing in the world is creative thinking and the greatest discovery in the world is a new thought.

Emerson once said, "It is easy in the midst of the crowd to be true to the crowd's opinion; it is easy in solitude to be true to one's self, but the great man is he who in the midst of the crowd keeps the independence of the solitude."

It is my hope that each graduate achieves this virtue.

Compliments of
FRED N. HERTEL
Jeweler

We, The Senior Class, Will--

I, Terry Monroe, will to Robert Harrman the ability to sleep in study hall with my eyes open, which was willed to me by Randy Derck. May he use it successfully.

I, Regina Meyer, will to Marylin Reinhart the ability to talk in Mr. Tussing's study hall.

I, John Foster, will to Tony Langham my cushion, water bucket, and verbal ability to use during basketball season -- and to Mary Doctor my ability to keep Mr. Foster off the subject in Government class.

I, Jerry Neely, being of sound mind and body (I think), do will to Alvin Copsey my place as editor of the Senior magazine FOSTER'S FROLICS, which consists of direct quotations from Mr. Foster's classes.

I, Delores Coon, will to Brenda Hutchins my ability to sit in government class and get something out of it.

I, Paul Howard, will my highly used government book to Janice Hoover providing she uses it more than I did.

I, Dick Horney, will to Mike Seslar my seat in third period study hall, my year's supply of paper wads, and one slightly used gym shoe.

I, Lee Carr, hereby will to Dale McAlexander my ability to be at school on time. (Just once during the year).

I, Karen Heckelmann, will to Charmaine Reeb my ability to get straight A's in Government.

I, Marcia Temple, will to Kay Walkenstine my ability to have a good time under any circumstances.

I, Laurenda Hunt, will to Linda Williams the right to call Mrs. Nihiser "Mom," and the ability to get along with her.

I, Joyce Donat, will to Verlaine Pollock my ability to stay awake in Government class.

I, Sue Bromagem, will to Andy Lichty my old out of date, but well used government book which he must treat with loving care as I did.

I, Mary Ann Sukup, will to Judy Carr my new government book and the ability to fail the first government test.

I, Sharon Rhoad, will to Etta Gaisford my good times in English class.

I, Pat Smith, will to Linda Klender my ability to talk in Mr. Foster's class.

I, Mary Schooley, will to Jean James my ability to write brilliant English themes.

I, Nancy Wannemacher, will to Jean Derck my ability to go steady all through my senior year.

I, Diane Stumphy, will to Elouise Taylor my ability to get to school just under the bell.

I, Eva Friend, will to Tom Seslar my ability to get along with Mr. Foster. Hope you advance further than I--and to Dawn Sheard my beloved locker providing she takes loving care of it as I did.

I, Mary Ann Lucas, will to Ken Hahn the ability to be as happy as I through his senior year.

I, Don Mabis, will to Karl Mielke my speed in track.

I, Virginia Meyer, will to Sharon Carr my government book providing she keeps it in good condition.

I, Winfield Meek, will to Martin Hunt my attendance record providing he does not miss more than 180 days.

I, Carrie Kosch, will to Ann Elston my government book and the privilege of arguing with Mr. Foster in class.

I, Kathy Mavis, will to Marilyn Toomey my locker full of white mice and also my position on the annual staff so that she, too, may argue with Mr. Fast the way I do.

Class Will

I, Denny Shuherk, will to Mike Zedaker my undying love for the hard work that Mr. Gard says is necessary for a good track man.

I, Linda Cottrell, will to Joan Ely all the good times that I have had at A.H.S., and also my ability to usually come to school on Monday mornings with both eyes open.

I, Janet Bowers, will to Month Cornell my locker, my government book, and the ability to get along with the teachers, especially Mr. Foster.

I, Kelly Tracy, will to Tony Langham a first-run copy of my new book BELL PAINTING AS AN ART and my slightly used white paint brush.

I, Neva Jo Baker, will to Coleen Murphy my government book in hope that she takes better care of it than I did.

I, Larry Miller, will to Andy Lichty my ability to stay out of trouble and get along with all the teachers.

I, Karen Seslar, will my government book to Jim DeLaurelle (under one condition)--if he doesn't write on it.

I, Harl Fisher, will to Bert Arnett my government book for next year's government class.

I, Bob Dunderman, will to Larry Franklin my ability to have a successful year.

I, Barbara Savage, will Ann Elston the Senior Class's putty to stuff in the keyhole of Mr. Foster's door.

I, Kelly Knuckles, being of weak body and even weaker mind, will to Mike Seslar my faithful old locker in hopes that he will collect as many papers in it as I did.

I, Jerry Balser, will to Richard Zimmerman my locker if he promises to let the mice stay but still keep it tidy--and to anyone who needs it, the ability to sleep during any period of the day.

I, Jay Snook, will Gene Coon my ability to do my government notebook the last day of the six-weeks period.

I, Mary McCalla, will to Carol Leinard all the good times I have had in my Senior year at good old A.H.S.

I, Steve Derck, will to Carrie Wells my ability to not study in Mr. Lehman's study hall and not get caught.

Sharon Rhoad, Kathy Mavis, Mary McCalla, Barbara Savage, Carrie Kosch, Linda Cottrell, Sue Bromagem at "AN EVENING IN PARIS" on Prom Night.

Senior Class Prophecy

In the summer of 1975 the Antwerp Class of 1960 was holding its annual reunion at Joyce Donat's Maumee Valley Health Resort. We stopped by in order to see what the members were doing. Immediately we spotted Paul Howard who operates the famous nightclub, "Howard's Hash House," in Antwerp. A few of his employees were headwaiter Jerry Neely and waitresses Mary Ann Lucas, Karen Heckelman, Mary Ann Sukup, and Delores Coon plus Terry Monroe, the chef famous for his new hush-puppy recipe.

We also met the well-known celebrity, Mary "Martin" Schooley, currently starring in the Broadway hit "Peter Pan -- My Favorite Peanut Butter," which co-stars Mary McCalla and her Merry Maids consisting of Regina and Virginia Meyers, Barbara Savage, Sharon Rhoad, and Linda Cottrell. Sitting in a corner of the dimly lighted "health bar" were three members of the notorious gang, the Unmentionables, Neva Jo "Ma" Barker, the leader, and her two henchmen Kelly "Brass" Knuckles and Bob "Babyface" Boesh.

Entertainment that evening included a solo by John "Hotlips" Foster, the trumpet player, and jokes by Master of Ceremonies "The Menace" Shuherk. It was at this time that we spotted Lee Carr, Franklin Campbell, Bob Dunderman, and Steve Derck entering the room. They didn't mention their business, but they acted very suspicious and left when top F.B.I. agent Kelly "Fosdick" Tracy came in accompanied by his bodyguards Nancy Wannemacher, Karen Seslar, and Kathy Mavis, famous for their man hunting ability.

We were surprised to see internationally famous playboys, Jay Snook, Jerry Balser, Winfield Meek, and Don Mabis at the reunion, but they told us later they were on the way to Florida and had stopped by to see how their friends were doing.

Women wrestlers Eve Friend, Pat Smith, and Sue Bromagen were present, but they had to leave early in order to be at Madison Square Garden for their opening night bout.

Harl "Maynard" Fisher and Bob Swann had left their "beat pads" in Greenwich Village to play their bongos and read poetry at the reunion. Everybody seemed to enjoy the act, especially western stars Dick "Deadeye" Horney, and Larry "Maverick" Miller.

The closing act, consisting of Carrie Koesch, Laurenda Hunt, Marcia Temple, and Diane Stumphy doing their interpretation of the bunny-hop, was finally over, and so we bid the people good-by and journeyed on to the great city of Antwerp.

JOHN FOSTER -- Senior -- Forward -- John didn't see much action but because of his fine shooting ability, he always was the other team's star in practice. Kept the team's humor alive. "Peanuts"

JERRY BALSER -- Senior Forward. Good rebounder -- A firm believer in team play. Sickness cost him a great season.

PAUL HOWARD -- Senior -- Back court man deluxe. His fighting heart made up for his size. Good outside shot and loved to drive.

Varsity

MICHAEL ZEDAKER -- Junior -- All county -- forward -- Led team in scoring -- A real fine player's player.

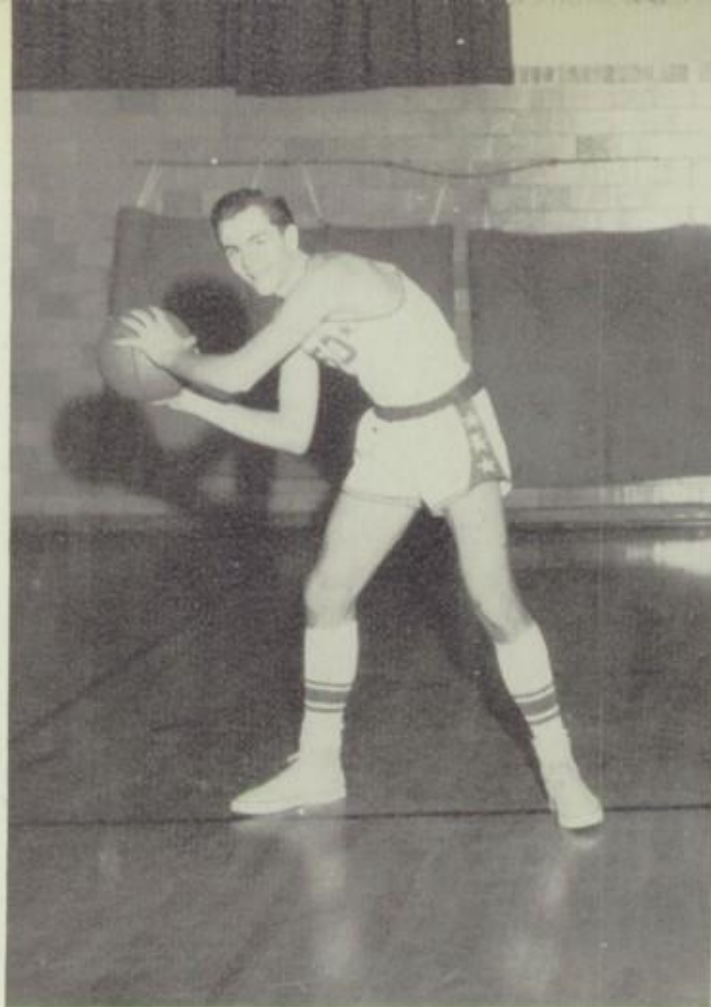

What's going on here?

RICHARD HORNEY -- Senior forward -- A consistent player -- dead shot from the outside. Had a knack for weak side rebounding. He played best under pressure.

KARL MIELKE -- Junior -- pivot man -- Strong and aggressive on the rebounds -- fine team man. Good defensive man -- should score well next season.

ROBERT BOESCH -- Senior -- Back court man -- deadly jump shot, aggressive offensively and defensively -- could put enthusiasm into any team.

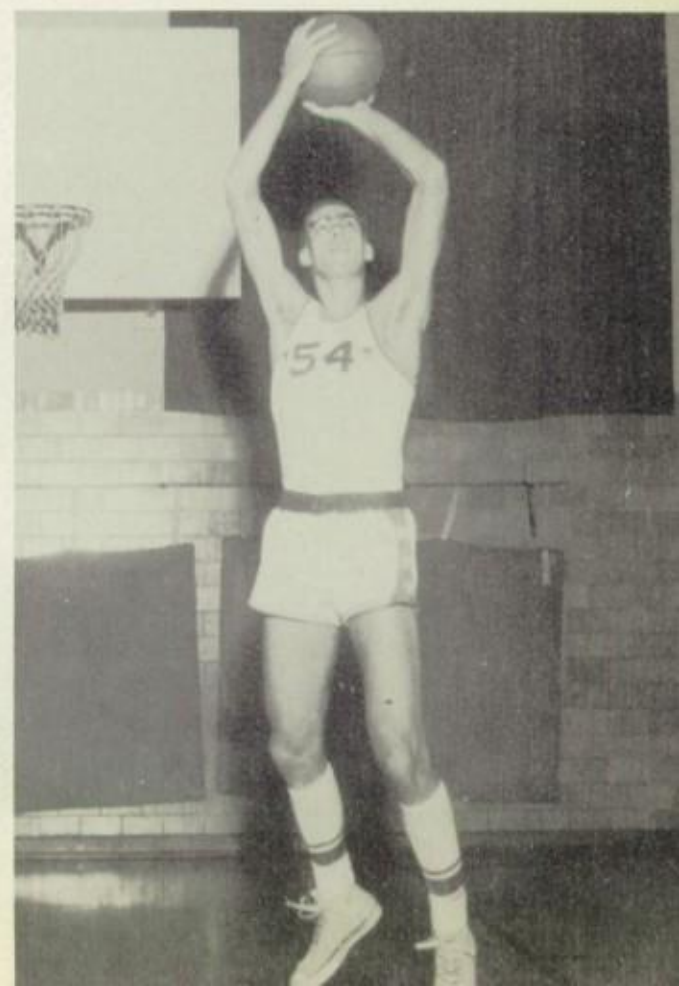

Varsity

KEN HAHN -- Junior -- forward. Dead on the jump shot -- good ball handler -- good floor man -- scored winning basket against Hicksville.

ANDREW LICHTY -- Junior -- Back court man -- fine ball handler, tricky on the drive -- bullet jump shot -- A defensive ball hawk.

DENNIS SHUHERK -- Senior -- All county -- Captain -- Played the post -- A dead eye left hander. Led the team in rebounds.

With a new director, Mr. Vern Tussing, the band started out with a busy schedule last summer which included many marching engagements. During the school year the band played for the Band Parents, P.T.A., and added noise to the basketball games. The A.H.S. band, composed of 52 members, had many soloists and ensemble groups competing in district and state contests.

The band feels proud to have received a I at district contest and a II at state contest. The year is highlighted by the spring concert and this year the Band Parents held an award banquet in honor of the band members.

There is a certain fascination which draws students toward the publishing of an Annual. Perhaps it is the assembling of layouts or the planning and writing of articles which explains the interest of this work for many.

This year the Archer Staff has toiled, learned, and enjoyed preparing a memory book. Its main purpose is to keep alive within the students the school spirit--a book for the students and by the students.

To the merchants of Antwerp and those who helped us finance and produce this book, the staff can only offer thanks, and hope that some day we may support and co-operate with these persons in an undertaking.
